WORKSHOP AND GUIDELINES ON CONDUCTING PROCTORED ONLINE EXAM

Ensuring academic integrity has always been one of the concerns when assessments are conducted online.

To support academics, AED is currently offering a workshop on proctored online examination to departments at the university.

The workshop will explore three types of proctored online exam, followed by a demo session.

To register, please go HERE.

AED is also happy to announce that guidelines on conducting proctored online exam for academics, department, and students will be released this month (May 2022).

To access these guidelines, please go HERE. Select 'Guidelines and FAQs on Online Assessment' tab and click on 'Guidelines on Conducting Proctored Online Exam'.

AED Webinar 4: Reimagining Teaching & Learning

This anticipated event is set to take place online, over two days, on the 25th and 26th of May (2.00- 5 pm). The event is also open to Lancaster University academic staff.

Selected academic colleagues will be presenting their good practices that have positively impacted students' learning and achievement. There are 10 presentations lined up for this event, including 1 participation from Lancaster University.

Themes for the webinar include:

- Engaging students in online teaching & learning environment
- Designing quality and authentic online assessment
- Online, blended teaching and learning

Registration began on the 29th of April 2022. It is not too late for you to register.

We look forward to your participation :)

LAUNCHING OF AED POSTGRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN HIGHER EDUCATION PRACTICE

AED is proud to announce that we will be offering our Postgraduate Certificate in Higher Education Practice programme (PgCert in HEP) beginning August 2022. In addition to MQA's provisional accreditation, the programme is also accredited by Advance HE, UK. This means that successful graduates will also be awarded Advance HE Fellowship, an international recognition of high quality teaching and learning, thus making the programme the first of its kind in Malaysia.

The Pg Cert in HE Practice is suitable for Sunway academics who seek to improve their understanding of and skills in teaching and learning in higher education. The programme will be taught and supported by AED and Sunway academics who have obtained Senior Fellowship or Fellowship from Higher Education Academy (HEA, UK).

Classes will be held on selected Saturdays. Be on the lookout for the programme promotion which will be out soon :)

UPDATE ON 2ND COURSE ON BLOCK TEACHING

In a continuous effort to support the university's transition to block teaching, AED launched the 2nd course on block teaching on OpenLearning- Redesigning Teaching, Learning and Assessment.

Since its launch, six departments/ centres have completed the course with more expected to join the course in the second half of the year. However, in response to the University's decision to defer the block mode implementation, AED has also put a pause to this initiative until further notice.

Certificates of completion have been issued to colleagues who have completed this course. It still counts towards completion of the required professional development for the year.

NEW FACILITIES FOR ACADEMICS

AED is proud to announce two new facilities - brand new recording rooms and hybrid classrooms that will soon be available for academics. All these facilities are located at level 5, university building.

More information is coming soon!
