INTRODUCTION

The School of Arts is a vibrant community where passion meets purpose, and creativity intersects with innovation. We understand that the arts are not merely about self-expression but also about understanding the world around us and influencing it in profound ways. Our curriculum is designed to challenge conventional thinking and encourage students to push the boundaries of what is possible, fostering a culture of curiosity, artistic excellence, and intellectual rigour.

In our state-of-the-art facilities, students have access to cutting-edge technology and resources that support a diverse range of artistic endeavors. From fully equipped design labs to performance spaces and film and music production studios, the School of Arts provides an environment where ideas can flourish and creative visions can be realised. We believe that the best learning happens through doing, and our students are constantly engaged in hands-on projects, collaborative assignments, and real-world experiences that prepare them for the dynamic landscape of the creative industries.

Our commitment to excellence extends beyond the classroom. We offer numerous opportunities for students to showcase their work through exhibitions, performances, and competitions, both locally and internationally. These platforms not only help students gain recognition and build their portfolios but also enable them to connect with industry leaders, potential employers, and like-minded peers. Through these experiences, our students learn to navigate the professional world with confidence and resilience.

Sunway University's School of Arts is an excellent choice for quality higher education, recently ranked within the top 2% of universities in the world (QS World University Rankings), and in the top 1.5% of universities in Asia.

DIPLOMA PROGRAMMES

DIPLOMA IN GRAPHIC AND MULTIMEDIA DESIGN

PROGRAMME INTRODUCTION

Our Diploma in Graphic and Multimedia Design aims to provide graduates with a broad-based education that's industry oriented. The programme also helps develop advanced skills while encouraging entrepreneurship as well as driving creativity and innovation among our students.

A deeper knowledge of visual expression and communication in art and design are also key factors in the creative industries. These qualities go a long way in ensuring employability in various local and international organisations.

REQUIREMENTS

The portfolio should consist of 5 (minimum) to 10 artworks, demonstrating a variety of mediums and applications.

Candidates should showcase a range of artworks, including still life, landscapes, perspectives, figure drawings, and portraits, using traditional mediums such as paintings, drawings, sketches, and collages.

Including a selection of digital works will enhance the overall impact of the portfolio. It is highly recommended to feature digital creations such as logo designs, posters, flyer designs, and other graphic works. Additionally, incorporating photographs, animations, and videos will help create a well-rounded portfolio.

BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS) IN THEATRE PRODUCTION

NEW PROGRAMME

PROGRAMME INTRODUCTION

The Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Theatre Production is a rigorous practice-based programme that equips students with the practical skills needed for a successful career in theatre. It covers the dynamic practice of contemporary theatre-making, allowing students to hone and sharpen their craft in performance, directing, devising, playwrighting, design, producing and production management. Critical studies of theatre history, performance theory and analysis, and contemporary and traditional theatre practices support this practical training.

Students also consider the production of theatre in an increasingly digital world. Further, they will graduate with basic proficiency in leadership, innovation, self-sustainability, leadership, and arts entrepreneurship.

This new programme is taught by theatre practitioners and academicians with diverse experiences, viewpoints, and methodologies. In addition to lectures and practical/studio sessions, students learn through tutorials, solo and group activities, guided research, field work, and field trips.

Students are given ample opportunities to network, collaborate, experiment, and find their voice through five productions within the span of three years. Students also complete a 12-week industrial placement before they graduate.

Beyond the field of theatre, this programme equips students with skills that unlock broad early-career prospects in the creative industries, which include (and are not limited to): the performance, production, and/or management for film; television; radio; digital and social media; broadcasting and journalism; music and dance; events and concerts; marketing and advertising; and entertainment-leisure industries, which include malls, zoos, museums, galleries, carnivals, and theme parks.

BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS) IN ADVERTISING AND BRANDING

PROGRAMME INTRODUCTION

The Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Advertising and Branding degree is an incubator programme where future storytellers use communication to develop their creative potential. It is where passionate young minds go to discover what they can become - storytellers, social leaders, thinkers and innovators.

You won't find a cookie-cutter definition of academic excellence or character in our programme. We believe great minds don't think alike. We value individuality and those who don't see the world as we do. Instead of working individually, you will define the culture and emphasise an environment of partnership, teamwork, trust, and respect. You will learn how to create inspiring and innovative campaigns, learn about the strategy and insights that campaigns are built on and be the catalyst for change in the advertising industry.

The programme focuses on driving your career with boundary-pushing ideas for whatever the future brings. This can be achieved with innovative courses and areas like:

- Conceptual art direction
- Global branding & identity
- Strategic advertising campaign
- Creative copywriting
- Digital photography
- Celebrity culture
- Visual storytelling
- Social media strategy

BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS) DESIGN COMMUNICATION

PROGRAMME INTRODUCTION

The Bachelor of Arts (Honours) Design Communication programme nurtures passionate, creative thinkers with a good understanding of design thinking and practices that drive the creation of innovative design solutions. Students' engagement with industry partners provides access to learning experiences in cutting-edge design, technology and digital media. Students will develop both individual creative skills and teamwork through participation in collaborative projects.

The highly digital, fast-paced multinational business environment provides the impetus for this programme, which prepares graduates for both the present industry and job creation through design entrepreneurship and innovation.

REQUIREMENTS

The portfolio requires a minimum of 5-10 artworks which show variation and usage of different medium and application.

Candidates should portray an array of artworks ranging from (but not limited to) paintings, drawings, sketches, collage and digital software application.

It is highly recommended to include drawings (still life, landscape, perspective, figure drawing, portrait and such). Further artworks could be a combination of photographs, poster designs, videos, animations, logo designs, sculptures etc of choice.

BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS) IN INTERIOR ARCHITECTURE

PROGRAMME INTRODUCTION

The Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Interior Architecture programme is designed for the student who wants to become a 21st century innovative interior architecture professional. The degree engages students in various aspects of design for interior environments, while developing professional and creative skills which enable students to contribute to the profession with confidence. The degree employs a broad range of learning environments. Studio experience develops fundamentals of the design thinking and process involved in the practice of designing interior spaces in real-world industrial settings.

A balanced mixture of theoretical and practical courses such as design practice, modelling, drawing, furniture design and sustainable design are coupled with communication, technology and entrepreneurship skills, creating a graduate profile that can be articulated beyond interior architecture to other design professions.

REQUIREMENTS

Candidates must submit a complete portfolio of at least 5-10 interior design drawings showcasing their best work.

The portfolio should include pencil and ink drawings, sketches of ongoing work, AutoCAD drawings, hand-drafted architectural drawings, 3D models, and other examples of design work. All artwork should be coloured and completed.
